Dear Colleagues!

On behalf of the organizers of the International Scientific Conference "Prevention of Elder Abuse", we invite you to submit a chapter contribution for an edited book on the theme of the prevention of elder abuse. Chapter contributions submitted for publication do not require a processing fee, and if selected, will be published free of cost. This edited work is part of a project entitled, "Unheard Voices: Developing the East Central European Network for the Prevention of Elder Abuse" supported by the European Association of Schools of Social Work (EASSW).

Chapters may be submitted on any topic related, but not limited to, the following areas of research: theoretical and practical action frameworks for diagnosis; intervention and prevention of elderly abuse; solutions for problems of elderly abuse that can be to formulate best practices and policies will be identified, explored and discussed. This exchange of information relating to the prevention of elderly abuse contributes to an increased knowledge base among readers, promoting the importance of the prevention of elderly abuse within society.

Chapters no longer than 20 000 characters (including footnotes) should be submitted by August 31, 2015, to the editorial co-ordinator, Katarzyna Jagielska, at katarzynaajagielska@gmail.com. All chapters will be subject to a double-blind peer-reviewed process, after which authors will be notified by email whether their chapters have been accepted for publication.

For text preparation details, please see the style guide provided below or visit:
